Plastics USA October 13-15, 1992 • Chicago, Illinois

SPI KNOWS PLASTICS —

That's why we're announcing Plastics USA — brought to you by SPI, the sponsor of the triennial NPE.

At Plastics USA, you'll get

- The latest product introductions and technical innovations.
- The 1992 exhibition created exclusively for plastics processors, producers and end-users.
- Conferences and Seminars by SPE, the Society of Plastics Engineers.

CHICAGO KNOWS PLASTICS —

Where else but McCormick Place, the nation's largest trade show facility. You'll see more machinery in operation at Plastics USA than at any other plastics trade show in North America in 1992.

YOU KNOW PLASTICS —

As an industry professional, you know it's hard to stay ahead. Plastics USA can help — with the latest product advancements, technical information, market comparisons and onsite demonstrations.

Join over 20,000 of your colleagues for the start of a new tradition in the plastics industry . . .
