

M. H. DETRICK COMPANY

SUBJECT: PRELIMINARY REPORT
D19

FROM Chicago - Insulation Division
DATE July 13, 1962

MR. R. S. ABELL
AURORA INSULATION DIVISION

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT

MHD-57

Dear Bruce:

The George V. Hamilton Company of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, pre-fabricates insulation fittings from Kaylo Block cut into pie-shaped segments and held together with a suitable adhesive which must withstand a temperature of 1200°F.

Please determine if it is feasible to formulate such a product at Aurora and submit samples for a test when available.

Sincerely,

T. S. Clousing

TSC:nrg

cc: Mr. R. W. Higgins
Mr. G. B. Speelman/Aurora