SPEECH BY TAYLOR

Featured speaker at the afternoon session of the convention was Senator Glen H. Taylor of Idaho, Henry Wallace running mate.

Taylor declared that now is the time "to stand up and fight—if you expect to be able to stand up and fight."

He declared that if either the Democratic or Republican Parties won the November election "the Wall Street boys and the militarists will still be running things."

"Truman is not a vicious man—but neither was General Hindenberg. He was a front for Hitler and that's all Truman is—a front man," Taylor said.

The Progressive Party vice-presidential candidate said if he were a Russian he would "crawl in a hole, too. I'd be scared, too—looking across the water at the greatest nation in the world arming against me."

Taylor had a busy day yesterday.

He spoke in the morning at Sausal Park, in Martinez. Last night he spoke at a Berkeley dinner meeting, addressed a mass-meeting in Richmond, both under the auspices of the Independent Progressive Party.

This morning he will address a mass-meeting of CIO Oil Workers in Martinez.

The union convention continues today at California Hall. Harry Bridges will be the main speaker of this afternoon's session.
