

Can we set up a call for 830 your time, 730 ours? That pleading, combined with Sam's statements, is causing serious heartburn. And I'm worried this situation is going to spiral if we don't get everyone on the phone together asap.