. Sherwin Williams Co., et al.
Case No. A 8701440

Dear Tony:

I enclose herewith a letter to me from Dennis Miller which summarizes the settlement terms in the referenced case. The terms he sets forth in his letter are the terms that we agreed upon. We are still looking into the anticipatory release of a claim that is not yet in existence, in connection with the potential claim of M wife. Initial results of research indicate that Mr. s wife cannot at this time release her potential claim. If you have any questions regarding this, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

Yolanda V. Vorys

RE: Our File 087-066-082-m/588
vs. Sherwin Williams Co., et al.
Case No. A 8701440

Dear Ms. Vorys:

This will confirm my phone conversation with you on January 8, 1990, wherein we have agreed to settle the Workers' Compensation Claim with your client, Sherwin Williams Company. I have confirmed the details of the settlement with my client by phone and have written him a letter. Based upon our phone conversation, my client has agreed to accept the sum of $40,000.00 in full settlement of all workers' compensation claims against Sherwin Williams. This settlement will also be executed by his wife, waiving any further spousal claims. The claim will also be enforceable by bot s wife. Sherwin Williams will pay the amount of the settlement in a lump sum upon approval by the Industrial Commission and/or Attorney General under the new procedure. You have agreed to attempt to expedite the settlement and process this claim. I further understand that you will prepare the settlement documents and prepare an Entry of Dismissal With Prejudice at your costs. The dismissal with prejudice will be a conditional dismissal subject to the approval by the Industrial Commission.

We have also agreed that Sherwin Williams will continue to pay mporary total disability benefits in the amount that he is now receiving. Any payment made to him after January 15, 1990, will be deducted from the final lump sum settlement. The final lump sum settlement will be made payable and our law firm.
