Hey Kristen, it's Kyle Nevins. I just left you a VM about the Exxon meeting to see if you think that date might work. I know y'all have a ton going on and hate to press. They just need to make a call today about whether to bring him in or not. Thank you so much!

Hey Kyle, sorry for the delay but wanted to follow up with you. I haven't had a chance to tag up with Wynn on this but I knew yall were talking. Does a meeting on Thursday still work?

Yes, it still works for us!

Ideally before 2:30pm

1pm?

At DOI?

That's great. Thank you!

Exxon's CEO now has to reschedule his trip. I'm not sure the reason, though I imagine the weather is playing a part in it. After all y'all have done I'm so sorry to cancel this. But I truly appreciate all of your help!

No problem! Next time he is in DC we'll definitely reschedule!
