Dear Billie,

How lovely to talk with you on the phone today! Good news that you finally received funds for an assistant --let's hope you're allowed to hire someone soon!

My tentative plan is to show up, lawyer in tow (his name is Neil Leifer) on Monday morning, April 22nd and work through the end of business on Tuesday. I hope to continue xeroxing some of Kehoe's papers on Donora, while Mr. Leifer is interested in learning more about Kehoe's work on lead, since he is doing fact-finding for a suit up in Boston on childhood lead poisoning from paint. We hope to look at all hundred or so boxes in the Kehoe collection, so I hope that it will be possible to schedule a field trip to the Lloyd Library, in order to look at the correspondence files stored there.

It is a pleasant surprise to be able to return to Cincinnati so soon --I look forward to seeing you!

Sincerely,

Lynne P. Snyder
