

1 look at the jury verdict form, and you are going to 2 see that trying to pin liability on Ford asbestos-3 containing trucks is absolutely ridiculous under the 4 terms that are on that verdict form. I leave that for 5 you to do back in deliberation.

6 At any rate, from what we know about Mr.
7 Wood's work at the post office between 1948 and 1952,
8 his possible exposure to asbestos as a longshoreman is 9 a lot better than -- as causing his mesothelioma than 10 brake and clutch parts supplied by Ford. We have got 11 zero evidence of that.

12 Let's talk about the Grewe case now.

13 Now, there is something that I have got to 14 admit to you that has been troubling me about this 15 case since I first learned about it.

16 Mr. Grewe worked for a number of years at a 17 place called Foreign Motors. Foreign Motors. It is 18 undisputed. That was his place of employment.

19 We heard from one of Mr. Grewe's co-workers, 20 Mr. Grossblat. And Mr. Grossblat told you that he was 21 actually hired to work at Foreign Motors by Mr. Grewe
