firm. He was piano soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in 1932 and 1933 and earned from Conductor, Walter Damrosch the praise of "most American of composers"

His last prominent work was Carmel Concerto, written in 1948 and broadcast 1950 by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.
RITES TOMORROW

Funeral services will be held at his home tomorrow and burial will be at Beverly, Mass., where he owned a summer home

John Alden Carpenter's "Carmel Concerto" was written during the time he and his wife made one of their two extended visits to the Peninsula between the years 1946

So many new and interesting books—

Provocative and stimulating, DOMINATIONS AND POWERS by George Santayana, who has never lost his skill with either words or ideas $4.50

WORLD WITHIN, WORLD the autobiography of the poet, Stephen Spender, $3.50

A new edition of an old favorite, THE PLUMED SERPENT by D. H. Lawrence, $3.75

James Michener has come back to the scene of his earlier triumphs, The South Pacific, in his new half-novel, RETURN TO PARADISE, $3.50 Half-novel because it is partly factual and partly fictional and wholly entertaining

Also in stock, the controversial novel of the year FROM HERE TO ETERNITY by James Jones, $4.50

An objective examination of a figure and a question about which nobody seems to be objective is found in John Gunther's RIDDLE OF MacARTHUR, $2.75 Highly recommended

Sumner Welles analyzes in his scholarly fashion SEVEN DE-CISIONS THAT SHAPED HIS-TORY, $3

And on the lighter side TALES OF A FOOLISH FARMER by George Sessions Perry, $3

MAN GETS AROUND by John McNulty, $2.75. Subtle and witty

Now that April is nearly past, Mother's Day is next. The Poor Scholar recommends for that occasion his books, stationery, cards and wraps. No sticky stuffy cards in his establishment.
