CDR - I attached some draft slides for an upcoming brief.

The last slide has short term actions. Except for the MIL-Spec revision, all the actions on here are expected to be done in the next couple months - the msg sooner rather than later.

Longer term actions still need to be determined, but we need the lab testing data (hopefully end of July), to form them.

If you need more info than what is here, let me know.

Thanks,

Mary

Mary or Jim,

I have to update my Admiral about the status and plan for our AFFF replacement and all that is involved by noon today. Could we please get an update on the way ahead.

Thanks for your time.

R/Dave

Very Respectfully,
