GENERAL LUMINOS CORPORATION
ELECTRIC BOAT DIVISION
GROTON, CONNECTICUT

MEMORANDUM

TO: F. T. Moran
FROM: H. M. Dempsey
FILE NO.:
SUBJECT: Dirty Money for Pipe Ladders

Date September 3, 1958

REFERENCE:

This will confirm an understanding with the Metal Trades Council that in lieu of additional cents per hour for piping ladders while working on amosite and ground-blown glass, an agreement has been reached whereby an employee in the pipe lagging department doing pipe lagging work and after having worked the majority of the days in the week, he will be paid a maximum of two days' "Dirty Money", which is an additional four dollars ($4.00) per week for handling this type of work. This arrangement has been accepted and confirmed by the Metal Trades Council, and will be effective September 1, 1958.
