Governor Scott Recognizes Target Print & Mail with Governor's Business Ambassador Award

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, during a meeting of the Florida Cabinet, Governor Rick Scott recognized small business Target Print & Mail, with the Governor's Business Ambassador Award. Target Print & Mail was founded in Tallahassee in 1982 and currently employs 30 Floridians throughout two Tallahassee locations.

Governor Scott said, "I'm proud to recognize Target Print & Mail with the Business Ambassador Award today. Small businesses are the backbone of our economy, and Target Print and Mail has been in business for 35 years here in Tallahassee. We will keep supporting small businesses in Florida so our economy can continue to grow.”

Target Print & Mail Owner and President Tracey Cohen said, “I’d like to thank Governor Scott for recognizing the team at Target Print & Mail with the Business Ambassador Award. We are a family-owned business founded by my mother, Mayda Williams, 35 years ago. I’m honored to continue her work and grow our team here in Tallahassee.”

The Governor’s Business Ambassador Award is given to individuals and business in recognition of their efforts to create jobs and opportunities for Florida families. For more information on Target Print & Mail, visit www.targetprintmail.com.
