Hi, Sattar!

Just wanted to let you know that I have rec'd the L/c for TGL-003 Red Rose Int'l and have placed the order - our order number JBMM31869. Because we cannot enter any new orders into the system for May shipment, the scheduled ship date for this order is June 2, 1992. The L/C had the latest ship date as June 15, so we should have no problem. If - by some small chance - we have some extra material before this ship date, we will certainly ship this out early. However, we never know this until after all the production is made and all the other shipments have gone out. Keep your fingers crossed....maybe we'll get lucky!!

I am also in the process of getting the commissions done for you. They should be completed by next week.

If there is anything further I can do to help, please let me know.

Thanks.
