Dear Mr. Borch;

As one of our past customers for whom we have performed vinyl chloride monomer analyses, we realize your need for up-to-date information about VCM. Therefore, we have enclosed summaries of the emergency temporary standard for VCM and the new standard for exposure effective January 1, 1975. The latest up-to-date information will be sent along as it becomes available.

I would be pleased to consult with you about your specific problems. I look forward to being of service.

Very truly yours,

L.J. Molinini
