Dear Bob:

It was great chatting with you again last week. I very much appreciated your calling to my attention the fact that some of your colleagues were not completely satisfied with our firm's responsiveness on the CAL-OSHA matter. I have spoken about these concerns with my partners Curtis Caton and Peter Weiner. Curt is our most senior partner responsible for the Grace account, and was consulted originally many years ago by Mario Favorito on a variety of matters. Peter is our most senior environmental specialist and the partner immediately responsible for this recent engagement. It is my understanding that Peter has had further conversations with Mr. Hughes of your legal department and that he has deeply reinvolved himself in the matter.

This is just to let you know that all of us here value our relationship with W. R. Grace and regret the recent difficulties which have been experienced. From what Curt and Peter tell me, things are back on track. We hope this matter is brought to a satisfactory conclusion and that we continue to earn the confidence and professional representation of W. R. Grace.

Thanks again for contacting me. I do hope that you will stop for a visit when you are next in San Francisco.

Best regards,

George H. Clyde, Jr.
