Re: Ancel Wheeler vs.
Norfolk & Western Ry. Co.

Dear Mr. Hudson:

We have been retained by Mr. Ancel Wheeler to represent him in his claim for personal injuries suffered during his employment with the Norfolk & Western Railway Company, at Portsmouth, Ohio.

And in consideration for services so rendered and to be rendered he has agreed to pay us 33 -1/3% of whatever recovery may be had by way of trial or settlement thereof. Furthermore Mr. Wheeler has assigned and set over to us an undivided 33-1/3% interest in and to the above claim and cause of action in whatever amount may be received or recovered thereon, as security for the payment of attorney's fees and services as aforesaid.

On my next visit to Cincinnati I hope to have the pleasure of meeting with you and discussing the possibility of an amicable disposition of this claim without the necessity of filing suit.

Looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you at that time, I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Harrison M. Fuerst
