Dr. John C. Waligowski, president of San Jose State College, will participate in a nationwide Air Force ROTC orientation conference Oct. 22 at Air University, Maxwell, Ala. Air Force Base, Montgomery, Ala.

Accompanying Dr. Waligowski will be Col. R. M. Britton, head of the Air Science and Tactics Department at AFSC. Some 125 colleges and universities throughout the United States, Maxwell, Ala. and Florida State will be represented at the meeting.

Brig. Gen. A. R. Deichmeyer, commandant of the Air Force ROTC program, said the one-day conference will emphasize three main points. Delegates will be acquainted with the proposed operation and administration of the program, will review the new ROTC course of instruction to be inaugurated in the 1954-55 college year, and study Air Force plans to conduct a program mutually beneficial to supporting institutions and the Air Force.

More than 125 college presidents and vice presidents and 90 deans of the nation's schools will be present, as will as Air Force ROTC professors.

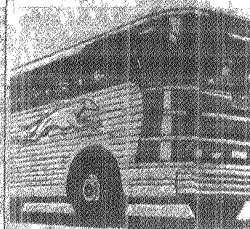

Dr. Waligowski and Col. Britton will leave here Oct. 21 by Air Force plane and return the day following the meeting.
