Ryan,

Byron may be forwarding this request to you, but, I would like to suggest an adjustment to over-asking of your time. Specifically...

1. As requested, would either or both of you be available to brief the CropLife America (CLA) 'Strategic Oversight Council (SOC)' (association operating board = pesticide business leaders) next Tues or Wed, March 21 or 22 at CLA's office, 1156 15th St, NW, Ste 400, Washington, DC?_
2. Amended request, would Administrator Pruitt be available to reschedule the meeting with the Production Ag "CEO Council" (full membership of the small group Byron met with last week) Wed or Thurs, March 29 or 30? This group can come to EPA or welcome him to the meeting also being held at CLA's office, 1156 15th St, NW, Ste 400, Washington, DC.

Thanks for each of your receptiveness to our outreach to the Agency as you are building your leadership team and priorities. We are flexible in the 'who, when and where' of each of these meeting requests, and look forward to hearing from your office soon.

Kindly,

Rebeckah

Subject: Thanks for a great conversation on Monday!

Byron,

Great to meet you on Monday along with the group of other ag organization leaders —thanks again for your time and focus!

Rebeckah Adcock on my CLA team (copied here—her phone numbers are 202 872-3841-office; 703 501 9371-mobile) will be reaching out to you and Ryan about a couple strategic events we're planning the next couple of weeks—

1. March 21-22 Meeting of CropLife America Strategic Oversight Council (our operating board)
2. March 29-30 Meeting of the Production Ag "CEO Council"

Both these meetings will be at our office at 1156 15th St, NW, Washington, DC. Hoping that you or Ryan or both of you you might be available to spend a little time with both these groups!

Jay
