of school age, dealing with comic books and things like that.

Are they in the library?

A. There were coloring books available, and we do have copies of those here at the library.

MR. JACKSTADT: Show my objection as beyond the scope.

Go ahead.

Q. (BY MR. SPEZIALI) Are you familiar with the teachers' aids that were provided for classrooms for teachers to teach safety to children? Are you familiar with those?

A. I'm familiar with something called Safety Education Data Sheets. That might be what you are talking about.

Q. Yes.

A. Yes, I am familiar with those. Those are in the library.

MR. JACKSTADT: Same objection.

Q. (BY MR. SPEZIALI) Now, again, looking at my Exhibit 11, which would be the 4th printing of the 1974, which I believe is Exhibit 8, on the page designated Roman Numeral X is a document that says "National Safety Council" and it's a document from an act of Congress signed by President Eisenhower.
