

1 determination.

2           How much time do plaintiffs want to argue
3 their case?

4           Keeping in mind that each represents only
5 one defendant now, and half, if not more than that, of 6 the evidence covers both plaintiffs.

7           Excuse me one minute.

8           (Whereupon, pause.)

9           THE COURT: Mr. Ignatowski.

10          MR. IGNATOWSKI: The plaintiffs' total time
11 requested would be two hours, Your Honor.

12          THE COURT: You will be repeating yourself
13 all over the place.

14          How much time do you request, Mr. Williams?

15          MR. WILLIAMS: Well, Your Honor, I would
16 request the same amount of time that the plaintiffs
17 get. But if they will agree, I will stick to an 18 hour.

19          THE COURT: The Court is going to allot an
20 hour and a half to each side.

21          Mr. Williams, how do you want to divide that