RE: Potential RCRA Violations and Opportunity for Settlement

Dear Mr. Danielczyk,

The United States Environmental Protection Agency, Region 6 (EPA), through its investigation and records review, made certain determinations about Interline Brands Amsan (IBA), and its facility located at 1110 W Washington, Paris, Texas. Specifically, EPA has identified potential violations of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA), and the regulations promulgated thereunder. I therefore write to share with you: (1) the current areas of concern; (2) an option for resolution; and (3) a timeline for resolution.

Current Areas of Concern

As a generator of hazardous waste, IBA is subject to Sections 3002 and 3010 of RCRA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 6922 and 6930, and the regulations set forth at 30 Tex. Admin. Code Chapter 335, Subchapters C and F, [40 C.F.R. Parts 262 and/or 270]. Upon further investigation, EPA may determine that IBA is also subject to Sections 3004 and 3005 RCRA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 6924 and 6925, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

Based on EPA's current investigation and records review, IBA has been generating hazardous waste and offering its hazardous waste for transportation and/or directly for treatment during at least 2016. Further, EPA has determined that the amount of IBA's hazardous waste generation likely triggers the large quantity generator requirements of RCRA.

From our investigation, EPA has identified several preliminary violations and areas of concern. At a minimum, EPA has identified the following preliminary violations of RCRA by IBA:

1. Failure to meet RCRA notification requirements, in violation of RCRA § 3010(a), 42 U.S.C. § 6930(a);

2. Failure to operate within its stated generator status for at least one (1) year, in violation of 30 Tex. Admin. Code Chapter 335, Subchapters C and F, [40 C.F.R. Parts 262 and/or 270]; and
3. Failure to submit its biennial report, for at least one (1) year, in violation of 30 Tex. Admin. Code § 335.71 [40 C.F.R. § 262.41].

EPA is prepared to meet and discuss the potential violations, and other areas of concern, with IBA, with the aim of resolving this matter through a timely settlement process.

An Option for Resolution

Upon receipt of this letter, if IBA is interested in resolving the matter through settlement, IBA has until April 13, 2018, to inform EPA by letter or e-mail by contacting:

Ms. Courtney Carter (6RC-ER)
Office of Regional Counsel
RCRA & Toxics Enforcement Branch
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 6
1445 Ross Avenue, Suite 1200
Dallas, Texas 75202
e-mail: carter.courtney@epa.gov

Thereafter, Ms. Courtney Carter will make arrangements to meet with IBA representatives either at the EPA office in Dallas, Texas or via a conference call. During this meeting or conference, IBA may address the potential violations and present evidence that contravenes EPA's evidence. The main goal of this option is to bring the Paris facility, and other IBA facilities, into timely compliance with the applicable environmental laws and regulations.

To the extent that IBA qualifies as a "small business" under the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act, enclosed is an Information for Small Businesses sheet that provides information on compliance assistance.

Timetable for Resolution

Given the nature of the potential violations listed above and the current evidence that EPA has in support of these violations, EPA estimates that the parties could have an agreed upon Consent Agreement and Final Order by September 10, 2018. This is contingent on whether IBA avails itself of the settlement process now offered and works amicably with the EPA. It should be noted that if IBA decides not to accept this streamlined option for settlement, IBA should notify EPA of its decision in writing to Ms. Courtney Carter by April 13, 2018. Thereafter, EPA will exercise its other options for ensuring IBA's timely compliance with RCRA and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

Please direct technical questions to Ms. Tripti Thapa of the Waste Enforcement Branch at (214) 665-7563, and legal questions to Ms. Courtney Carter of the Office of Regional Counsel at (214) 665-8175. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Mark Potts

EPA Compliance Incentives

EPA provides incentives for environmental compliance. By participating in compliance assistance programs or voluntarily disclosing and promptly correcting violations before an enforcement action has been initiated, businesses may be eligible for penalty waivers or reductions. EPA has two such policies that may apply to small businesses:

EPA's Small Business Compliance Policy

EPA's Audit Policy

Commenting on Federal Enforcement Actions and Compliance Activities

The Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act (SBREFA) established a SBREFA Ombudsman and 10 Regional Fairness Boards to receive comments from small businesses about federal agency enforcement actions. If you believe that you fall within the Small Business Administration's definition of a small business (based on your North American Industry Classification System designation, number of employees or annual receipts, as defined at 13 C.F.R. 121.201; in most cases, this means a business with 500 or fewer employees), and wish to comment on federal enforcement and compliance activities, call the SBREFA Ombudsman's toll-free number at 1-888-REG-FAIR (1-888-734-3247).

Every small business that is the subject of an enforcement or compliance action is entitled to comment on the Agency's actions without fear of retaliation. EPA employees are prohibited from using enforcement or any other means of retaliation against any member of the regulated community in response to comments made under SBREFA.

Your Duty to Comply

If you receive compliance assistance or submit a comment to the SBREFA Ombudsman or Regional Fairness Boards, you still have the duty to comply with the law, including providing timely responses to EPA information requests, administrative or civil complaints, other enforcement actions or communications. The assistance information and comment processes do not give you any new rights or defenses in any enforcement action. These processes also do not affect EPA's obligation to protect public health or the environment under any of the environmental statutes it enforces, including the right to take emergency remedial or emergency response actions when appropriate. Those decisions will be based on the facts in each situation. The SBREFA Ombudsman and Fairness Boards do not participate in resolving EPA's enforcement actions. Also, remember that to preserve your rights, you need to comply with all rules governing the enforcement process.

EPA is disseminating this information to you without making a determination that your business or organization is a small business as defined by Section 222 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act or related provisions.
