IDCNA'S TENTH

PROGRAM
10th ANNUAL NATIONAL MEETING of the Insulation Distributor-Contractors National Association, Inc.

THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL
NEW YORK
OCTOBER 10 to 14, 1965

President
DILLARD BREEDING
1965-1966

By privilege and pleasure I welcome each of you to the TENTH ANNUAL NATIONAL MEETING OF IDCNA. By privilege because I am honored as President of this growing, healthy, association; by pleasure because it is good to see you all—the members of IDCNA, who make up its strength; the manufacturer's representatives, who through their presence at these meetings demonstrate their desire to cooperate with us in the lawful and effective promotion of our industry; to our guests whom we believe are here to see our convention operate and to meet with fellow members of the industry; to our speakers who will each have an inspiring address for us; and last, but in no terms least, the board of directors and those committee chairmen who have labored so diligently in the past year in their efforts to strengthen and cement our association.

Each of these chairmen will report to you on his committee's activities during the past year, and from these reports it will be clear how effectively these committee chairmen and members of the committees have pursued their course.

The theme of this meeting is "Nationwide Progress through Association Participation." Let us prove to ourselves and to the entire industry that participation in our association is the open door to nationwide — and, yes — to international promotion and improvement of our industry through communication. Welcome!

Sincerely,
DILLARD BREEDING
President of IDCNA
