Hi, Kristin. Just checking back in. I left you a voicemail yesterday as well and mentioned that I learned my colleague here in our DC office, Kevin Avery, had lunch with your husband last week in Houston. Small world! Anyway, I know how busy you are, and I don't want to pester you – if there is somebody else that we should reach out to, just let us know. We are looking to schedule a call with Wynn for our SVP for Global Government Affairs, Andrew Lundquist, sometime over the next couple of days, and then a meeting with Wynn for next week for our executives who will be in town that I mentioned below. Those details are:

Our SVP for Global Operations, Kirk Johnson, and President of ConocoPhillips Alaska, Erec Isaacson, are going to be in DC Feb. 19 and 20, and we are hoping to schedule time to meet with Wynn. ConocoPhillips very much appreciated President Trump's Alaska-specific Executive Order and the President's ongoing recognition of the tremendous resource potential that exists in Alaska. As the State of Alaska's largest oil producer, we would like to provide Wynn with an overview of our Alaska business, our Willow project, and talk about some issues related to the National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska, some timely.

Some possible time options on our side to get things started are:

Wednesday, Feb. 19: 10am, 2:30pm, 3:00pm, 3:30pm
Thursday, Feb. 20: 8am, 8:30am, 11:30am

Audrey is copied here and can help coordinate schedules.

Best, Kjersten

Hi, Jodee,

My name is Kjersten Drager, and I work on ConocoPhillips' federal government affairs team here in DC. I was given your name as someone who might be able to point me in the right direction.

Our SVP for Global Operations, Kirk Johnson, and President of ConocoPhillips Alaska, Erec Isaacson, are going to be in DC Feb. 19 and 20 for meetings. They would like to meet with the right person(s) at DOI to discuss some somewhat timely issues for us in Alaska. As there is no Deputy Secretary, ASLM or BLM Director yet in place, and we know nominees are unable to meet, can you tell me who the right person might be?

I really appreciate your help!

Best, Kjersten
