

1 doing to approach industrial hazards.

2 Q But you would agree with me that a
3 manufacturer, before it puts its products into the
4 stream of commerce, should know the risks associated
5 with that product, wouldn't you?

6 A Yeah, that is certainly a good idea.

7 Q Now, Dr. Kerby, you first started looking at 8 the literature prior to 1965 sometime in 1979; is that
9 correct?

10 A '78, late '78.

11 Q '78. And that was at the request of a
12 lawyer who represented a company known as Keene
13 Corporation, correct?

14 A That is correct.

15 Q And the gentleman's name was a Mr. Bosewick
16 or Boswick?

17 A Bosewick.

18 Q Bosewick. Before you started to do your
19 research or look at the medical articles, he gave you
20 a list of articles, did he not, to take a look at?

21 A He gave me a list, which was entitled
