It is O.K. for the income and sales taxes to go back to the pre-1943 rates as proposed by Governor Warren. There has been no move as yet to extend the 1943 reductions and unless bills to this purpose are passed the reductions automatically end June 30 next. Smaller personal exemptions which would become effective will

Whether legislators, lawyers and public office holders shall be required to take loyalty oaths. Will a "little Hoover" Commission be created to streamline the state government. Will there be any material changes in the parimutuel laws or the state's percentage take? Will Governor Warren's anti-water pollution program or that formulated by Assemblyman Randall F. Dickey, Alameda, be enacted?

Pacific Grove police today are investigating, and attempting to contact the owner, of a car which has been parked between the Lovers' Point Inn and the Wave Apartments at Ocean View boulevard for over five weeks. Stock Market

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—A number of key issues hit new lows for the year today in a generally declining stock market.

Volume ran at the rate of 750,000 shares.

Following the lead of steel shares, motors and rails sold off. Also lower were utilities, metals, chemicals, airlines, and aircraft, with some losses being shown in rubbers, mail order and retail, and oils.

In Wall Street, brokers could cite nothing in the news to cause the bearish sentiment during the day.

New lows for the year were touched by Youngstown Sheet & Tube, U S Steel (old), Bethlehem Steel, Montgomery Ward, Westinghouse, American Telephone & Telegraph (six year low), and Santa Fe.
