Dear Mr. Pitt:

Many thanks for your letter of March 3d and enclosure. I am always grateful to friends who send in this sort of tripe, as it enables me to let the editors know that it does not go unnoticed, as I have indicated in the letter to Mr. Bradshaw, of which a copy is herewith.

I doubt if this does any great good, but it probably does no harm. To follow through on all the crazy stories on plumbism that come to me from our clipping bureau and otherwise would be quite a task in itself.

Sincerely yours,
