(Whereupon, Plaintiffs' Exhibit Number 11 was received into evidence.)

MS. TOSTANOSKI: Your Honor, an objection as to Owens-Illinois.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. SMITH: This document is to Mr. Marshall, who we heard was the attorney; Mr. Boeschenstein, who we heard is the president of Owens-Corning and director of Owens-Illinois; Mr. Zimmerman, vice-president of Owens-Corning regarding Asbestos Workers union.

Strategy for 1942. Should it not be to take the offensive. The following plan is suggested:

Gather as a weapon in reserve an impressive file of photostats of medical literature on asbestosis.

Available are bibliographies covering the medical literature in 1938 citing the references to scores of publications in which the lung and skin hazards of asbestos are discussed.

This file would cover five or 600 pages
