EPA Administrator Lee Zeldin Will Join Western Governors for Annual Policy Summit

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has confirmed that Administrator Lee Zeldin will provide a keynote address at the 2025 Annual Meeting of the Western Governors' Association (WGA).

Following his address, Administrator Zeldin will join the attending Western Governors for a public policy discussion. Thus far, seven Western Governors have registered: Alaska Governor Mike Dunleavy, Colorado Governor Jared Polis, New Mexico Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham, North Dakota Governor Kelly Armstrong, Governor of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands Arnold Palacios, Utah Governor Spencer Cox, and Wyoming Governor Mark Gordon.

The two-day meeting, which will take place on June 23 and 24 in Santa Fe, New Mexico, will also feature a keynote from Secretary of the Interior Doug Burgum, as well as several panel discussions on rural health care, outdoor recreation, housing, and post-wildfire flooding.
