Subject: EPA Walkthrough?

Tate and Kelly,

I hope this note finds you well. Things are coming together for our Congressional Call Up and I wanted to circle back on your invitation to come see the room. Would you be available to do a walk-through with a few members of our team so we could see the location of our EPA meetings and so we could familiarize ourselves with the check-in procedures prior to guiding our large group through? Sometime around 2:30PM next Wednesday, February 21st would work for us, though we are bit flexible.

Thanks again for inviting us. We are looking forward to the event and really appreciate all of your help bringing this together.

Sam
