As required by statute, CMA has estimated that 15% of the 1994/95 Fiscal Year dues is allocable to lobbying and political expenditures to which Section 162(e) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applies. Consequently, this portion of the above amount is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense for federal income tax purposes.

We are now required by law to tell you that contributions, gifts or membership dues paid to CMA are not deductible as "charitable contributions" for Federal income tax purposes. This law does not affect the deductibility of these payments as a "business expense." ; however 162(e) (1) noted above does affect deductibility.
