Small Modern Home Utilizes All Usable Floor

It is a small, modern home that utilizes all usable floor space. The house is a single-story affair with a flat roof and a large front porch. The interior is finished with a combination of wood and tile. The kitchen is a small, efficient unit with a built-in stove and sink. The living room is a simple, functional space with a fireplace and a large window. The bedrooms are small but comfortable. The bathroom is a simple, clean unit. The house is a good example of how a small home can be made to feel like a large one.

Mother, Father Live in Paris

A family of four has moved to Paris. The father is a doctor and the mother is a nurse. They have been in Paris for several years and are very happy. They have a large house and a beautiful garden. They are very close to the city and the country. They are very happy and are enjoying their life in Paris.

HORSES GET EVEN

ALPENA, Mich. — A farmer left his horse in a pasture area while he went over to check on his cattle. When he came back, the horse was gone. The farmer was very angry and went to the police. The police found the horse in a nearby field. The horse was very tired and had a sore back. The farmer was very happy to see his horse and gave him a good meal. The horse was very happy and went back to the pasture.
