INSTRUCTIONS FOR HANDLING CLAIMS FOR MATERIAL DAMAGED IN TRANSIT

The merchandise shipped you has been loaded in accordance with standard practices and should arrive at destination in good order unless subjected to unnecessary roughness in handling while in transit.

In the event of Damage or Loss PROTECT YOURSELF FOR REIMBURSEMENT by carrier by doing the following:

1. Immediately notify the local freight agent and request immediate inspection.
2. Secure a copy of the inspection report.
3. Make sure Door Seals are intact and retain them.
4. If material is to be refused — set it aside — do not dispose of any material for which a claim is to be filed without written authority from the carrier.
