Today on Climate Beat . . .

. . . we started at EPA, where the agency is poised to start the clock for public comments on its proposed rule to repeal the Clean Power Plan.

Speaking of the Clean Power Plan repeal, don't miss our weekly wrap-up of some of our top stories, which this week focuses on the repeal plan and the threatened litigation over it.

In other litigation news, we reported on states' and environmentalists' briefs urging a federal appellate court to reject calls from trailer manufacturers to stay EPA's greenhouse gas rule for heavy-duty vehicles.

And, as always, our daily news roundup.
