EDITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT

IT is the purpose of THE A.S.H.V.E. GUIDE to maintain its leadership as the standard authority of the heating and ventilating profession. To accomplish this objective, it is necessary to coordinate the results of the latest research with the practice of the outstanding engineers of the profession by recording the most up-to-date information and data available on each phase. The editorial staff of THE GUIDE therefore is made up of heating and ventilating engineers of unusual qualifications, who are specialists in the subjects to which they are invited to contribute.

The Guide Publication Committee is greatly indebted to the following engineers through whose efforts THE GUIDE 1931 has been made possible, and who have given their services without compensation or thought of reward other than the satisfaction of having performed a public service:

O. W. ARMSPACH
W. S. BONDY
D. R. BREWSTER
J. C. BUTLER
A. C. DAVIS
T. J. DUFFIELD
J. E. EMSWILER
J. L. FADEN
