

Beck/Arnley Corporation, Beck/Arnley Corp. of Illinois, which was incorporated in Delaware in December 1974, was merged into Beck/Arnley Corporation on February 25, 1987, with Beck/Arnley Corporation being the surviving entity.

Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated May 3, 1998, between Dana Corporation, Echo Acquisition Corp., and Echlin, Inc., Dana Corporation acquired the outstanding stock of Echlin, Inc. Upon this stock acquisition, Echo Acquisition Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Dana Corporation, was merged with and into Echlin, Inc. Echlin, Inc. was the surviving corporation and became a wholly owned subsidiary of Dana Corporation.

At the present time, Beck/Arnley Worldparts Corporation is owned 95% by Dana Global Holdings, Inc. and 5% by Dana International Holdings, Inc. Dana International Holdings, Inc. is a subsidiary of Dana Global Holdings, Inc. and Dana Global Holdings, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Dana Corporation.

Since entry of the October 20, 2003 Order, Dana has reviewed limited information which was maintained by Echlin, Inc. relative to Beck/Arnley Worldparts Corporation. Dana's responses are principally based upon information within Defendant's possession, custody and control.

Documents available to Dana may not answer, in whole or in part, an interrogatory. Accordingly, Dana will answer only to the extent that this is information currently available and reviewed that Dana believes is sufficient to answer, in whole or in part, the interrogatory. Substantial progress has been made finding information requested by Plaintiffs. Defendant reserves the right to amend, supplement, modify or otherwise change these responses in the event it acquires additional information responsive to these interrogatories, or if it appears that inadvertent or administrative omissions or errors have been made.
