I'm so sorry for missing this. I'll get above water soon.

Subject: potential speaking opportunity

It was so nice to see you both last night. I know you are swamped but I have an opportunity/favor to ask. We – like the rest of DC – are hosting an event for infrastructure week. Its from 10-12pm on Thursday 5/18. Rep. Delaney is going to speak about his infrastructure bank proposal and then we have two panels of folks talking about successful P3s. I need an R speaker to follow Delaney. Would either of you be interested? Doesn't have to be about your boss' perspective – just what you see happening on infrastructure (water infrastructure for Ryan). Thanks!

Thanks again for the time last week. I'm checking on the PR SRF situation. You are correct, that was a ridiculously written memo. I'll get back with you soon.
