ner W R Holman both protested that a house was a "single family dwelling" whether inside an auto court or out

Workman added, "I could have gotten a long list of petitioners too." Four neighbors took sides with Workman

Mr and Mrs. Henderson, 708 Grove Acres, B. A. Kprf, 766 Grove Acres and Charles Godfrey, 710 Grove Acres avenue, said they had bought property near the court and lauded its management Workman asked if "after years of working for the town without payment (as a councilman) must I give up my rights as a private citizen?"

"GOOD PLACE"

Campbell answered, "It is a good place, I don't doubt that a bit. But you might have a soundproof dog and cat hospital where a dog and cat hospital was not allowed and you still cannot do indirectly what you cannot do directly"

Crabbe said as a "practical matter, without consideration of the legal aspects," it would be better and wiser for Workman to build as he wished, rather than "conform" by opening the entrances upon the main road (Four thousand square feet is required for single family dwellings, and Workman said that he had nearly 6,000 square feet each for the houses planned.)

Hodges called the discussion an "embarrassing squabble" but said, "I can't go along with my neighbors (who back up Workman) since it is only a matter of time until the court reaches the corner and goes down the other side . .

We have pretty well defined ideas about how we want things out there . . and want to keep it that way."

Harper pointed out, "It was mentioned that Mr. Workman 'applied here several times' He has only appeared twice before this commission."

The final move—to search the records further for possible early zoning—was made by Crabbe and seconded by Olmsted

History Path Gets Summer Paint Job

Preparing for the summer rush of tourist business, Monterey city crews today were completing the refinishing of the red and yellow Path of History which directs visitors to Monterey's historical objects along a circular tour of the city

Close to 50 points of interest are listed on the path which is marked out on Monterey streets in the red and yellow colors of old Spain. It was originated by the Monterey History and Art Association.

The British House of Commons is part of a group of buildings which cover eight acres, two miles of passages, 100 stairways and more than 1,100 rooms.

SCOTT IS 7. Ann is 27. Her vacation brought them to the Monterey Peninsula. Their things are in storage waiting to be shipped when they find a place to call home. They have the very finest references. If you have something and can help please call 5367 days or 7894 evenings after 6 p. m.
