Report On Tau Mu Style Show Tuesday

The home of Mrs. Cedric Jasper was the recent locale for Tau Mu's regular meeting. Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Jasper was Mrs. Harry Wagard.

A report on Tau Mu's recent fashion show disclosed to the members that it was successful in every way. Pleasing the membership even more was the fact that their hospital fund was being used, and the proceeds from the recent charity event enabled them to supply more to this benefit.

The committee named for the Road Races booth in June are Mmes. Eldon Covell, R. C. Ingels, Stanley Kelley, and J. J. Culley.

The members were also reminded of the May dinner meeting which will take the place of their regular meeting.

Mrs. Gurling Will Fly to Australia

Selina Gurling leaves next Saturday, April 26, to go "home" to Australia. A native of that country, Mrs. Gurling came to the United States while a child, and has never returned to her birthplace.

Flying East, she will visit Sydney and Brisbane, and will pause at New Zealand on the return flight. Her month's vacation will be spent with relatives.

PTA Elects Mrs. Kallerup

Mrs. William S. Kallerup was elected president of the David Ave. Parent-Teacher Association for the coming year at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon on the school lawn.

Other officers elected were, dee. president, Mrs. Antonio Segura; secretary, Mrs. Raymond Martin; treasurer, Mrs. Manuel Alonso; auditor, Mrs. Julius Stelter; and historian, Mrs. Gustva Galko.

The all musical program consisted of several numbers by the school chorus under the direction of Morrix Dill. Some of the numbers were: "Father We Thank Thee," "I Love You California," and others. A piano solo was played by Larry Wescott.

The school orchestra and band played several selections and a short skit was presented by some of the students depicting fashions and dance from the Gay Nineties up to the present time.

Stamp Club Will Meet Monday Night

A trading session will be sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club at its meeting Monday evening, April 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Carmel High School.

Stamp collectors are invited to attend and to bring their albums and duplicates to trade or just to discuss philately. Refreshments will be served.

Carmel Valley Ramblings

By BARBARA CORRIGAN

The event of the weekend will be tomorrow's Wild Flower Festival. Sponsored by St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church, under the direction of Clyde Robin, this annual event is one of the most colorful in the Valley and is growing yearly.

It will be held in the multi-purpose room at Tularcitos School, and in addition to thousands of wildflowers there will be gaily decorated booths representing other local organizations:

Carmel Valley Distributing Company, dairy products; George Wright and Paul Clark; Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pizza; Mrs. Don Weber; Clyde Robin, dryed flowers and wildflower seeds; Carmel Valley Women's Club, popcorn, home made candy and popcorn balls; Mrs. J. S. Wood; Chapel Guild, home baked foods, jams, jellies and pickles to-go; Mrs. Robert Davis; Community Center, hamburgers. Mrs. Ed Hober; Parents' Club, cupcakes and coffee; Mrs. Joseph Carter; Monterey Peninsula Crafts, art objects, Alberta Brooks; Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce, literature, Hugh Erwin; Isle of Skye Meat Sauce, Mrs. Frank MacDonald; St. Dunson's, hot dogs.

There will also be a fortune-telling booth, with Mrs. Jack Smickens behind the crystal ball. The hours of the festival are from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

(P.S. Sorry there was no room...

...tions. Seated there were R. Adm. E. E. Yeomans, superintendent of the United States Naval Postgraduate School; Mrs. Yeomans, the club's honorary president; Capt. Albert Coffin, director of the Line school; and Mrs. Coffin, president ex-officio; Capt. and Mrs. Jefferson Parker; Mrs. A. P. Hunt and Lt. Cmdr. Elizabeth Harrison, club counselors, and the 1958-A officers. Also, Capt. and Mrs. Paul Foley, Mmes. Charles Jett, Harold Heming, Robert Giel.

Other special guests invited were Mmes. Roy Glasgow, Max Firth, Charles Darrah, William Wadley, Warren Taylor and Cmdr. Louise Wilde.

Mrs. Louise Crayton, outgoing president, was presented an engraved silver bowl from all the members as a thank you gift for her outstanding work as club president. Mrs. Crayton presented the General Line School Wives Club with a handsome pair of silver candlesticks from the 1958-A wives.

As each of the new officers was installed, she was presented a corsage by the retiring officer she replaced and took her place at the head table. These new officers are Mrs. Lawrence Lawton, president; Mrs. R. H. Paxton, vice president; Mrs. L. K. Weber, recording secretary; Mrs. W. H. Wood, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, treasurer.

Miss Myrle James, field representative for Navy Relief was introduced at the meeting. She is presently conducting Navy Relief-classes at the Postgraduate School.
