in other words

by JOHN CLINTON

Well, with my neighbor, the slightly-absent-minded professor, life is never dull. He's always forgetting something. Like a famous vaudeville performer, if he has a piece of rope in his hand, he's never sure whether he's found a rope or lost a horse!

* * *

He used to get stranded without money to buy gas till I got him a Union Oil credit card. And he never had his car lubricated till the Minute Men came after it regularly every thousand miles.

* * *

I was just beginning to relax when it happened! His battery went dead while he was driving. So he left it at a gas station, and drove on with a rental battery.

* * *

A week later his wife asked him if he had picked up the recharged battery. He looked startled. He forgot whose he left in!

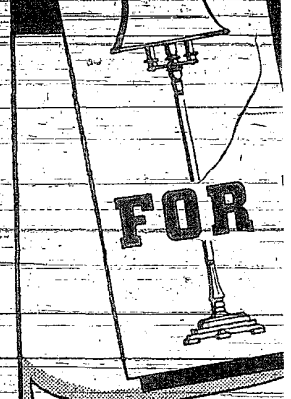

* * *

Well, the Minute Men even straightened that out for him, too. They asked him what route he took to town, then asked him if he'd used his Union Oil credit card in the transaction. Yes, come to think of it, he had! So they called all the Union stations on his route — found the right one, and even picked up his battery for him!

* * *

Now, when his battery needs charging, they are to take it out on the spot ...recharge it ...and put it back next time he comes in! I suggest you get a Union Oil Credit Card. You never know just how handy they'll be! Ask any Minute Man for an application.
