Georgia-Pacific Plans Gypsum Facilities in Buchanan, N.Y.

NEW YORK—Georgia-Pacific Corp. said it plans a new gypsum wallboard manufacturing plant on the east bank of the Hudson River in Buchanan, N.Y. The company said the plant will cost more than $5 million.

The plant's initial capacity will be 120 million square feet of wallboard annually. Expected to be in operation by the summer of 1968, the plant will supply Georgia-Pacific customers in New York and New England.
