STARS TO HEAD S. F. DRIVE TODAY

With movie stars Joan Leslie, Walter Pidgeon, Boris Karloff and Maxie Rosenbloom, and stage star Olga Baclanova heading the festivities, San Francisco today will open its September War Bond drive.

Representing the motion picture industry, which has been appointed to head the September drive by the Treasury Department, the Hollywood contingent will be guests of honor at a luncheon at 12:30 p. m. at the Palace Hotel. Admission price will be $1.25 plus a War Bond purchase today. Bonds will be on sale in the Palace lobby.

TO STOP SHOWS.

Every theater in San Francisco will stop its show at 9 p. m. to stage a demonstration honoring the men of the armed forces under the title, "Salute to Our Heroes."

The Senior and Junior American Women's Voluntary Services (AWVS) will also participate in the Billion Dollar September drive, it was announced by Mrs. George D. Cohn, AWVS Bond Coordinator.

UNION SQUARE EVENT

The AWVS units will be in charge of all bond and stamp sales at the two day show to be staged on September 12 and 13 at the Union Square Garage War Show.

Today's itinerary for the Hollywood stars will be as follows: 11 a. m., a reception at City Hall; 12 noon, bond sale rally at Bush and Market Streets; 12:30, luncheon at the Palace Hotel; 2 p. m., bond sale rally at Taylor Street and Golden Gate Avenue; 5:30 p. m., a tour of the Henry J. Kaiser shipyards at Richmond; 7:30 p. m., bond sale rally at Yard No. 2; 8 p. m., bond sale rally at Yard No. 1.

Rail Commissioner Riley in Hospital

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 31 (INS)—State Railroad Commissioner Ray L. Riley of San Francisco was in a San Luis Obispo hospital today, recovering from a heart attack he suffered on a train while en route home from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Riley, who was accompanying the commissioner, said Riley will remain at the hospital for several days until fully recovered.
