Hi Shawn,

Great to see you last night! We've added your new email to our events and Rundown lists.

We're closely monitoring the energy credits and how this will play out for y'all the remainder of this week/going into next week. Our conservative clean energy voter project research dug into tax credits specifically, and we have some good findings for how to message it to the base. We'd love to share with DOE's comms team if helpful.

Do you mind connecting us with the right people?

Thanks,
Emily
