PREDECISIONAL AND DELIBERATIVE EPA Announces Appointment of Cosmo Servidio to Region 3 Administrator

WASHINGTON (October xx, 2017) –Today, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Administrator Scott Pruitt announced the appointment of Cosmo Servidio of Pennsylvania to become Regional Administrator for Region 3. Mr. Lopez will oversee environmental protection efforts in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

Cosmo Servidio currently holds the position of Director of Environmental Affairs for the Bucks County Water & Sewer Authority in Warrington, Pennsylvania where he plays a vital leadership role in one of the state's largest water and wastewater utilities. Mr. Servidio oversees operations and facility planning to help identify needed improvements to maintain essential water and wastewater services and also provides oversight to ensure utilities comply with all state and federal requirements. Prior to joining Bucks County Water & Sewer Authority, Mr. Servidio served as Regional Director for the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection for the Southern Region from 2012-2016 where he worked in an administrative role to ensure staff implemented the Department's priorities to improve air quality, waste management, radiation protection, remediation, conservation, safe drinking water, dam safety, clean water programs.

Mr. Servidio also served as Chief of Staff for the EPA's Region 2 headquarters from 2005-2009 where he helped administer federal programs in implementing the agency's mission in New Jersey, New York, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virginia Islands.

"Cosmo Servidio's has spent much of his career providing administrative support for institutions that provide healthy environmental outcomes for the public," said Administrator Pruitt. "He brings federal, state, and local administrative experience working in the environmental field and will provide exceptional leadership for Region 3."
