

Bodger

By Murtha Hurley

THE royal sweet sultan is a charming annual. Florists have adopted it because of its beauty, its sweet scent and because it is an excellent cut flower that lasts well.

On long, slender stems the deeply fringed, graceful flowers appear singly and are often 2 inches across. Some have centers different in color from the outer petals. Flower colors are yellow, white and light purple.

In the garden the plants, which bloom freely through spring and early summer, making a beautiful show, grow 3 to 4 feet tall, are stocky and vigorous with interesting, light-green,
