CHEMICAL MARKETING REPORTER - JAN. 5, 1976

GE Gets PCB Order

Environmenial Protection Agency has proposed an order that would force General Electric Company to cease all discharges of polychlorinated biphenyls into the Hudson River within eighteen months. The order applies to PCB emissions from GE plants in Fort Edward and Hudson Falls, N.Y. GE has until January 26 to respond to the proposed order.

MONS 032460