prehensile plan has been made for the port of Oakland.
BEHIND INDUSTRIAL GROWTH
The port development of Oakland thus far has been haphazard, and has not kept pace with the industrial growth of the city. The sum of $5,540,000 has already been expended by the Federal government in improving the waterways of this port, which sum has been supplemented by expenditures of the municipality and private interests. Further improvements will doubtless be undertaken by the Federal government as fast as the municipality demonstrates that it tied up his capital too long

ALL manufacturer here in Oakland had a large order from an English ing company in the interior of China. To fill it would take a good part is working capital. He made inquiry about time required for shipment that it would take anywhere from sixty to a hundred days to actually hen there would be the customary sixty days before the invoice became bably a matter of forty or fifty days before the funds could reach Oak-ther, it appeared impossible to get his money out of the transaction soon ake it a wise undertaking, in view of his limited capital.

me to this bank for advice. At our suggestion he was able to get the ina to arrange for a letter of credit under which we were able to cash on presentation of the "ocean bill of lading" from the steamship company the goods—a matter of a few days rather than months for collection.

Dad's THRONE

Mother insisted, despite Dad's protest, that the old oak Morris chair had no place in the newly decorated living room.
But daughter came to Dad's rescue, and brought his chair up-to-date by refinishing it in walnut with LUSTRELAC VARNISH STAIN.

Why not refinish those pieces of furniture grown old in service? You will find the correct finish to match practically every kind of wood; Lustrelac Varnish Stain comes in oak, light oak, dark oak, walnut, and light and dark mahogany.

Ask for a color card which gives directions for refinishing furniture. It also shows the various wood colors and explains how hardwood effects are secured on soft wood floors by using Lustrelac Varnish Stain.

You can now paint your property and pay on the Bass-Hueter Monthly Payment Plan. Call and let us explain this plan to you.
