

1 leaving that behind, in both Grewe and Wood, the 2 plaintiffs want to move now that there has been a 3 close of all of the evidence by both sides for 4 judgment as a matter of law on the evidence, so that 5 as to preserve the basis for any post trial motions
6 that the plaintiffs would make.

7 MR. IGNATOWSKI: That is correct, Your
8 Honor. We would join in that request.

9 THE COURT: The ruling the Court made with 10 reference to Ford's motion is applicable to that made 11 by the plaintiffs.

12 It is clear that the issues generated by the 13 evidence in the case must be resolved by the trier of 14 fact, so accordingly, the Court will deny all motions
15 for judgment on both sides.

16 I am not inclined to add those words, Mr.
17 Hoffman. I think generically it covers the issues you 18 want to cover, and I know that you and Ms. Hines will 19 wax eloquent to the trier of fact, as will Mr.
20 Williams and whoever is going to argue for Mr. Grewe.

21 I am going to let them make their
