

From: Governor's Press Office [Governor'sPressOffice@eog.myflorida.com]
Sent: 10/24/2017 10:02:12 PM
Subject: Gov. Scott Appoints Eight to the CareerSource Florida Board of Directors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 24, 2017

CONTACT: GOVERNOR'S PRESS OFFICE

(850) 717-9282

media@eog.myflorida.com

Gov. Scott Appoints Eight to the CareerSource Florida Board of Directors

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced five reappointments and three appointments to the CareerSource Florida Board of Directors.

Rick Matthews, of Viera, is the vice president of global operations of Northrop Grumman Systems Corporation. He is reappointed for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending March 21, 2019.

William Johnson, of Tampa, was the former Vice President of finance shared services at Coca-Cola Refreshments. He is reappointed for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending March 21, 2019.

Elisha Gonzalez Bonnewitz, of Winter Park, is the government and community relations manager for Duke Energy. She is reappointed for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending March 21, 2019.

Rose Conry, of Jacksonville, is the CEO of Stafftime. She is reappointed for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending July 6, 2019.

Tim Center, of Tallahassee, is the founder of Centerfield Strategy and the CEO of Capital Area Community Action Agency. He is reappointed for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending March 21, 2020.

Stephanie Smith, of Miami, is the senior public policy manager at Uber Technologies. She is appointed to fill a vacant seat for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending October 24, 2020.

Camille Lee-Johnson, of Atlantic Beach, is the chief operating officer at Lee Wesley and Associates. She is appointed to fill a vacant seat for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending October 24, 2020.

Tony McGee, of Orlando, is the CEO of HNM Global Logistics. He is appointed to fill a vacant seat for a term beginning October 24, 2017 and ending October 24, 2020.

###