

1 Kaylo, and I just don't think they have any relevance
2 to the case against Ford.

3 THE COURT: Do I hear any comments?

4 Mr. Smith?

5 MR. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.

6 We offered these documents against Ford
7 because they showed Mr. Boeschenstein's actual
8 knowledge of the dangers of asbestos beginning in
9 1939, I believe, extending into the 1950s.

10 Mr. Boeschenstein, we heard and we read to 11 the jury a deposition passage, he was a Ford director,
12 on the board of directors --

13 THE COURT: I sustain the objection to that 14 offer.

15 MR. SMITH: I am sorry?

16 THE COURT: When that was put in, I believe
17 I sustained the objection to that, didn't I?

18 MR. WILLIAMS: Actually, Your Honor, I think
19 it was raised twice.

20 I objected -- I filed objections to when
21 they put in the -- they did it twice and I objected
