Dear Scott,

I've taken some time to think about this. The position you describe may not be the best fit. Do you think there may be other positions coming down the pike that may better utilize my technical strengths and experience?

Thanks for your consideration,

Luke

My part, Policy, Management and Budget. The title can be flexible. The grade is undetermined. Probably a GS-13 or 14

Dear Scott,
Thank you for thinking of me for this. Which branch within DOI you were thinking of? And do you have a sense for the position title and GS level?
Best,
Luke

Luke,
I might be in the market for a schedule C as an aide de camp, troubleshooter, and more generally someone to keep track of all the assignments my future boss and I spin off to make sure that the bureaucracy actually follows up and things get done.

Would that be of any interest to you, or is that too much process and not enough substance?

Thanks,
Scott

Hi Scott,
Thanks for writing! I'm wrapping up my AAAS fellowship at USDA at the end of August. I'm currently planning on returning to my faculty position at the University of California, Berkeley, but I continue to be interested in a political appointee position at DOI where I could contribute my knowledge in areas such as geospatial analyses, natural resource management, survey analysis, and public affairs.

I happened to meet Richard Cardinale, Chief of Staff in Land and Minerals Management, a couple of weeks back. We had a good conversation and he also forwarded my application materials on to Lori Mashburn.

Keep me posted if you hear of opportunities where I may be a good fit, and I am happy to come by DOI to introduce myself to the appropriate people.

Best,
Luke

That sounds great, Catherine!

Any day that week except Tuesday works for me for lunch, if you'd like to do that.

Thanks,

Dear Scott,
Thank you for reaching out. I would love to catch up! Congratulations on the official job title! I am back in DC week of August 7. Can we get together one day that week?
Maybe you even want to see the application I am working on...? (It has recently become a hit and I'm very proud.)
Sincerely,
Catherine
